STANLEY J. STEIN SENIOR THESIS PRIZE

IN LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

The Stanley J. Stein prize is awarded each year to the student who writes the best senior thesis on a Latin American topic. The thesis may be in any field.

In accordance with the updated grading policy in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, a passing grade (P) will be considered this year if the academic quality of a particular thesis deserves exceptional recognition. To qualify for nomination, the thesis must receive a grade of A+, A, or P from both readers and be accompanied by detailed reading evaluations. In exceptional cases, the committee will consider a thesis that has received an A- from one reader as long as the second grade is an A+ or an A and the adviser includes an explanation of why the thesis merits a prize.

Departments may submit up to two (2) nominations.
