This presentation will discuss the memories and analysis around the Forum on Feminicides and Global Accumulation that took place in Buenaventura, Colombia, in 2016, and its actuality in the context of an increase in violence against Black and Indigenous women within the ongoing process of territorial expropriation.

DISCUSSANT
Rita Segato
PLAS Visiting Research Scholar and Lecturer
Princeton University

MODERATOR
Susana Draper
Comparative Literature
Princeton University

GUEST SPEAKERS
Betty Ruth Lozano, María Campo & Martha Rivas
Researchers and activists with the collective ¡Otras Negras . . . y Feministas!

This talk will be in Spanish.

Wed., March 2, 4:30pm | Zoom
REGISTER HERE