The Spanish Transpacific: Workshop Schedule (subject to changes)
Friday, April 6 - 144 Louis A. Simpson International Building

9:00-11:00
Moderator: Thomas D. Kaufmann (Princeton University)

1. Jorge Mozarro (University of Santo Tomás): An Early Transpacific Account on the Spice Islands by Andrés de Urdaneta (1536).
2. Tatiana Seijas (Pennsylvania State University): A Royal Decree on Trade between the Philippines and New Spain (1604).
3. Ana Rodríguez Rodríguez (University of Iowa): Moors in the Philippines (1667).

Coffee Break

11:15-12:45
Moderator: Javier Guerrero (Princeton University)

1. Ricardo Padrón (University of Virginia): Juan Cobo’s Chinese Map (1593).
2. Regalado José (University of Santo Tomás): The Only Extant Document in the Ancient Philippine Script or Baybayin (1629-1634).
3. Leo Garófalo (Connecticut College): The Will of an India Oriental and her Chinos in Perú (1644).
4. Vicente Rafael (University of Washington): Tagalog and Ladino Texts Produced under Spanish Rule.

Lunch

2:00-3:30
Moderator: Miguel Ibáñez (Columbia University)

2. Ryan Crewe (University of Colorado Denver): Two Trials of a Moluccan Mestizo before the Transpacific Inquisition (1623-1645).

Coffee Break

3:45-5:15
Moderator: Elizabeth Davis (The Ohio State University)

1. Miguel Martínez (University of Chicago): Manila’s Sangleyes, the Parián, and a Chinese Wedding (1625).
2. John Blanco (University of California, San Diego): “Padre, ya sabes la cosa”--Idolatry and Apostasy in the Jesuit "Carta Anua de 1633."
3. Carmen Hsu (University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill): Fernán Méndez Pinto’s Travels in a Spanish Play from the First Half of the 17th Century.
4. Stuart McManus (University of Chicago): Indios, Chinese, and Spaniards in the Struggles in the Pacific Theater of the Seven Years’ War in a Poem by Bartolomé Saguinsin (1766).