

FALL 2019 FELLOWSHIP EVENTS: OIP

Welcome back to campus! Please check the OIP Calendar for a few additional events this semester.
Please take a look at our website for detailed information: <https://oip.princeton.edu/fellowships>

FELLOWSHIPS OPEN HOUSE

Wednesday, September 11 • 5:00–6:30 p.m. • Davis Center MPR 60, Simpson Hall Basement

Please drop by to discuss upcoming fellowships with mid-to-late semester and early spring deadlines—including the CLS, Sachs, Gates, Luce, and NSF—with Dr. Deirdre Moloney, Dr. Steve Gump, and recent fellowship recipients from Princeton. Juniors are encouraged to attend so they can start planning early for the Truman, Goldwater, and Beinecke scholarships (for junior year) and for the Rhodes, Marshall, Fulbright, and other awards (for senior year). We will also host representatives from Career Development and opportunities including High Meadows, Princeton in Asia, Princeton in Africa, Princeton in Latin America, and Scholars in the Nation's Service (SINSI). This will be an informal event, so please stop by and say hello.

CHURCHILL SCHOLARSHIP INFO SESSION

Tuesday, September 17 • 7:00–8:00 p.m. • Engineering Quad, E-Wing, Room E219

The Winston Churchill Foundation offers scholarships for graduate study in STEM fields at Churchill College, Cambridge University, UK. Contact Dean Rebecca Graves-Bayazitoglu (rgraves@princeton.edu) with specific questions after visiting the Churchill website: <http://www.winstonchurchillfoundation.org>.

SACHS SCHOLARSHIPS INFO SESSION #1 and #2

Wednesday, September 18 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. and 7:30–9:00 p.m. • Julis Romo Rabinowitz A17

Two identical information sessions will be held, the first at 4:30 p.m. and the second at 7:30 p.m. Two Sachs Scholarships are awarded each year, with one scholar named in each of the following tracks: The Sachs Scholarship at Worcester College, University of Oxford, allows the Sachs Scholar to read for any appropriate degree from the University of Oxford. The Scholarship assures tenure of two years at a stipend sufficient for university and college tuition and a generous allowance for other expenses. The Sachs Global Scholarship enables study at any foreign institution or the pursuit of an independent program of the scholar's own devising for one to two years. The stipend will be set in accordance with anticipated needs, up to a maximum of $45,000. For more information: <http://www.princeton.edu/oip/fellowships/major-awards/sachs/>.

REACHOUT FELLOWSHIPS INFO SESSION

Thursday, September 19 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. • McCosh 62

The ReachOut 56-81-06 Domestic Fellowship enables a Princeton senior to devote the first post-graduation year to undertaking a special project, or otherwise performing a useful function, for a public interest organization of the applicant's choice, anywhere in the United States. The 1956 ReachOut International Fellowship enables a Princeton senior to spend the first post-graduation year performing a public interest project anywhere in the world. For more information: <http://www.princeton.edu/oip/fellowships/major-awards/reachout/>.

STUDY ABROAD FAIR

Friday, September 20 • 12:30–3:30 p.m. • Frist South Lawn

Come speak with program providers and university representatives from around the globe, Princeton students who have studied abroad, and OIP staff members. Information about academic year and summer study abroad will be available. This is the best opportunity of the year to learn about Princeton's study abroad and international internship options!

PAUL AND DAISY SOROS FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP FOR NEW AMERICANS INFO SESSION

Wednesday, September 25 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. • Lewis Library 122

A representative of the PD Soros Foundation will visit campus to provide an overview of this award for New Americans and to address your questions. The program funds two–three years of recipients' graduate and professional degrees. Seniors who immigrated to the United States, or whose parents immigrated to the United States, are eligible, as are currently enrolled graduate and professional students. For details, see: <https://www.pdsoros.org/>. Sponsored by the Graduate School.

GATES CAMBRIDGE WRITING WORKSHOP

Sunday, October 6 • 6:00–7:00 p.m. • Simpson A66

Dr. Moloney will host a workshop for students planning to apply for the Gates Cambridge Scholarship this fall who wish to have input on the (Gates and Cambridge research-oriented) essays. She will begin with some general tips on highlighting your strengths in 500 words or less. Participants will then exchange drafts and offer each other their comments. Please bring three copies of your essays with you. This session is designed for those who have working drafts in hand by the workshop date. Please RSVP by Friday, September 27, by writing to fellow@princeton.edu.

CRITICAL LANGUAGE SCHOLARSHIP INFO SESSION

Thursday, October 17 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. • Simpson A71

Dr. Gump will introduce the Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) program, an intensive overseas summer language and cultural immersion program for U.S. citizens of ALL class years. Apply to study one of the following languages: Arabic, Azerbaijani, Bangla, Chinese, Hindi, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Persian, Portuguese, Punjabi, Russian, Swahili, Turkish, or Urdu. Past CLS participants will speak about their experiences and will provide application tips. Applications for summer 2020 are due in mid-November. Prerequisites vary by language; consult the CLS website for more information: <https://clscholarship.org/>.

TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP INFO SESSION

Tuesday, November 5 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. • Lewis Library 120

This session presents an overview of the Truman Scholarship, led by Dr. Terry Babcock-Lumish, Executive Secretary of the Truman Scholarship Foundation. Committee members will be on hand to address your specific questions. The Truman Scholarship Program annually awards between 55–65 scholarships to JUNIORS in recognition of their outstanding leadership records and potential, academic achievement, and commitment to pursue careers in public service. The award provides up to $30,000 toward graduate study in the U.S. or abroad in a wide variety of fields. For more information: <http://www.truman.gov/>.

MARTIN A. DALE '53 FELLOWSHIP INFO SESSION

Wednesday, November 6 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. • Simpson A66

The Dale Fellowship enables an outstanding Princeton senior to devote the year following graduation to an independent project of extraordinary merit that will widen the recipient's experience of the world and significantly enhance his or her personal growth and intellectual development. For more information: <http://www.princeton.edu/oip/fellowships/major-awards/dale/>.

CRITICAL LANGUAGE SCHOLARSHIP ESSAY WORKSHOP

Thursday, November 7 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. • Julis Romo Rabinowitz A12

In this interactive workshop, participants will review strategies for crafting effective CLS essays. Bring drafts of your CLS essays, be ready to read, and be ready to think and offer (and receive) constructive comments. Bonus: Dr. Gump will review your revised essays after the workshop if you (a) register by November 6 by emailing fellow@princeton.edu with your name, your CLS language, and the number of years you will have studied the language by summer 2020; (b) attend the November 7 workshop; and (c) send your revised essays to Dr. Gump by 9:00 am on November 13.

LABOUISSSE FELLOWSHIP INFO SESSION

Friday, November 15 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. • Simpson 144 (PIIRS Seminar Room)

The Labouisse Fellowship, in the amount of $25,000, is awarded annually to a graduating Princeton senior who wishes to work or study abroad. The donors hope that independent projects of some practical nature, or ones carried on within some established institutional framework, will be supported by the fellowship. Henry Richardson Labouisse '26 was a diplomat and an international public servant who in word and deed championed the causes of international justice and international development. For more information:

<http://www.princeton.edu/oip/fellowships/major-awards/labouisse>.

FELLOWSHIPS INFO SESSION FOR STUDENTS LEAVING FOR SPRING STUDY ABROAD

Wednesday, December 4 • 4:30–6:00 p.m. • Simpson A71

This information session is designed for juniors who are preparing to study abroad in spring 2020, but all students are welcome to attend. Topics to be covered include: preparing for UK fellowships (including the Rhodes, Marshall, and Gates Scholarships) as well as Fulbright, Schwarzman, and other international options with deadlines in the early fall. Spring campus information sessions for potential applicants begin in February, but students who are abroad are welcome to receive fellowship advising over Skype. Moreover, if you are thinking about returning to the country to which you are now headed after graduation, you can develop valuable contacts for fellowship applications while abroad. Princeton students who have studied abroad, undertaken research abroad, or participated in IIP, BYP, EWB, and other international initiatives have been particularly successful in the fellowships arena. Please review the fellowships website to learn more about what options might be most compelling: <http://www.princeton.edu/oip/fellowships>.